In the narrow open space berived at this port on Thursday morning last at 10 tween the Morgue, on Twenty-sixth street and East River, and at midnight, just inside the lower Bellevue hospital gate, on Twenty-sixth street, there were twenty-seven coffins side by side. Each contained a victim of the rlot. The Morgne was parposely kept dark, because even at that late hour there was a large crowd outside the hospital walls eagerly demanding admission, to search for missing friends or relatives. No one was admitted. Early this morning the lower gate of the Believue, on Twenty-sixth street, will be opened, to permit the public to enter to view the corpses. THE WHALE FISHERIES COMPANY .- We are extremely glad to learn that the Whaling Company projected at the public meeting held last week, and reported in our columns, is in active process of formation. Mr. Louis A. Nathan, of the firm of L. D. Nathan & Co., and Mr. A. Wardrop, of the firm of Brown, Campbell & Co., have been appointed provisional directors, and a large number of shares have been already taken up. Captain Clayton, sec-retary to the company, will receive signatures of persons desirous of taking up shares, and will aftord all possible information. It gives us great pleasure to be able to notice that this excellent scheme is being taken up in a real spirit of hearty enterprise, and we are convinced that ere long
